Abstractor's Note :

These abstracts are taken from the handwritten Quarterly Conference minutes which are contained in seven bound record books located in the archives of Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church, Concord, North Carolina. An effort has been made to abstract all information which might assist anyone seeking to compile a history of any of the churches on the old Concord Circuit.

The Concord Circuit was usually composed of Methodist churches located in Cabarrus County, North Carolina. In 1884 there were five churches on the Concord Circuit: Mt. Olivet, Rocky Ridge, Union, Center, and Bethpage. Bethpage UMC is located in the southern edge of adjoining Rowan County. Of the original five churches, Bethpage is not found on the Circuit after 1884. Center Church, now revitalized and thriving, was on the Circuit from 1884 through 1910; it was closed about 1925 and reopened in 1954. Union and St. Matthews Churches merged in 1888 to form Mt. Carmel Church, which was a part of the Circuit until 1937. Mt. Olivet and Rocky Ridge were continually a part of the Circuit through 1937.

There is a lapse in these records from 1892 to 1901; when they resume in 1902, Bogers Chapel was a part of the Circuit and was still on the Circuit when the records again end in 1918. A later record, being the minutes of the Circuit for 1935-1937, reveals that it was then a three-charge circuit, composed of Mt. Olivet, Mt. Carmel, and Rocky Ridge.

It is hoped the full-name index will assist both family and church historians in compiling the record of their churches, the pastors who served them, and the families who worshiped there. However, the names are spelled exactly as they were found in the minutes. In using the index, the researcher will need to look for similar names with slight differences in spelling. I am especially grateful to Kathryn L. Bridges for carefully proof-reading the manuscript and for preparing the excellent index.

Minutes of the Quarterly Conference of the Concord Circuit, Salisbury District, North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, For the Years 1884-1887

Churches on Circuit: Mt. Olivet, Union, Center, Rocky Ridge, Bethpage [in 1884 only], and St. Matthews [beginning in 1885].

First Quarterly Conference, February 16, 1884, at Center Church

W. S. Black, Presiding Elder; Rev. Z. P. Rush, Preacher in Charge [PC].
Secretary and Recording Steward: J. A. Fink

Members present for Conference: Rev. Z. Rush, J. A. Fink, M. H. Winecoff, Jeremiah Shinn, J. Dove, Joseph Fisher, J. R. Litaker, W. R. Johnson, Chalmor Plott, J. F. Sides, and A. L. Coburn.

At the February, 1884, meeting the pastor made "an appeal in behalf of the parsonage debt." He noted that at three of the appointments the Sunday schools were suspended during the winter months, but had been in operation at Mt. Olivet. He indicated the congregations had been "fair" considering the bad weather, that the spiritual condition was `medium" and the "prospect helpful."

For 1883, the salary of the Preacher in Charge was $605.00; $540.00 was actually paid. $60.40 was raised for the Presiding Elder, and $12.00 for the Bishop. $42.00 was collected for Foreign Missions and $22.67 for Domestic Missions.

One member was added at Union, J. W. Edgison. No deaths were reported. Infants baptized: Mattie Ella Williford and Mamie Ellen Berringer.

Second Quarterly Conference, May 23, 1884, at Union Church

We "have schools at each appointment all doing tolerably well." The following were elected as delegates to District Conference: W. H. Winecoff, J. Dove, C. E. Sides, A. L. Coburn, Charley Cook. John Butler, J. A. Fink, J. M. Fisher, Alternates. S. C. Rodgers , Superintendant at Bethpage, resigned and A. L. Coburn was elected in his stead.

Jane Esther Townsend died April 7, 1884. Removed by certificate: James Goodman from Olivet and Hannah Creach at Rocky Ridge. Nine infants were baptized: Thomas Franklin Sides, Zula Ervin Plott, John Marvin Fink, Annie Elizabeth Fink, Mary Lu Nesbit, Lorna Dove Pounds, Elma Flossy Dove Pounds, Mary Anne Goodman, Espa Matts Winecoff. Mrs. _____ E. Rodgers dismissed by certificate. Two received: William Overcash, _____ Hodge.

Third Quarterly Conference, August 31, 1884, at Mt. Olivet

"The Sab(b)ath Schools on the circuit have upon the whole done a good work this year but at some appointments not as good as at others. I think the future is brightening. The people are becoming more concerned of the importance of education and early training of the children."

We have held protracted meetings at each appointment this quarter continued about a week at each place. The congregations on the Sabbath were large, on week days not so large. Some only occasionally of the members were present all the time, some only occasionally. Some only on Sunday and some not at all. The interested ones were present and did their duties. I studied and preached the best we could but the apparent results were not what we desired. A few penitents but two or three conversions, yet I think the church upon the whole is improved and hope that much good has been done. The following were added by certificate at Rocky Ridge: W. H. Hudson, Sarah C. Hudson, James E. Hudson & Joseph B. Hudson. Infants baptized: Wilson Luther Holland. Deaths: Elizabeth Susan Williford and Cora Earnhart.

Fourth Quarterly Conference, October 18, 1884, at Bethpage Church

"We have Sabbath Schools at each appointment. Our schools upon the whole have done a good work. This year the schools at some appointments are more flourishing than others, but I think the school at Mt. Olivet excels the others as that the superintendant J. A. Fink is training the children to become interested in all the enterprises of the church to contribute to each even to the support of the pastor and as for myself I appreciate very highly the contributions of S Schools even the smallest mites of the little ones. God bless the children."

RESOLUTION:

On behalf of the members of Mt. Olivet Church, we the trustees of the church, desire to express appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Scott for the appropriate gift which they have so generously presented to the church by placing in the permanent records of the church a statement of our feeling of thankfulness toward them.

Goodness and beauty are so closely related that it is very fitting that the institution which holds up to man's view the "Beauty of Holiness" should also be surrounded by beauty itself. On giving to the church shrubbery with which to improve its grounds, Mr. and Mrs. Scott have done a done a deed that will not only make the church a more pleasant place to come to, but will have its effect on the lives of the people of the community. It is said that we tend to become like our surroundings. If this be true, this gift of Mr. & Mrs. Scott will tend to make the church community more harmonious and Christlike.

Not only does this gift mean a great deal to the life of our community but it also indicates the character of the lives of the givers. It is said that "as a man thinketh, so is he." This specific deed together with our observation of the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Scott, make us realize that this gift is nothing more than a true expression of the quality of their thinking and the type of their Christianity: "Only God can make a tree" and only God can prompt a man and woman to live a Godly life, the natural outcome of which is beautiful deeds. Respectfully submitted, /s/ W. M. Patterson, G. A. Shinn, W. A. Fink, and C. J. Goodman, Trustees. J. N. Randall, Pastor. May 19, 1935.

Resolutions of Respect

On February 4, 1937, brother W. L. Winecoff was called from the life where he had laboured so faithfully for the noble things of life, both in the community and the church of which he was a faithful steward for more than fifty years, to his eternal reward. Therefore, be it resolved:

First: That we, as fellow members of the Concord Circuit Quarterly Conference, express our sorrow at his going.

Second: That we express our sincere sympathy to his sons and daughter, praying that the presence of God may be to them what it was to their beloved father, and that they may have the same strong faith in God as was his.

Pastor's Report for the 4th Quarter:

The work of the church on the circuit is in good shape. The work in each department is enjoying a natural normal growth. The church schools are all in fine shape. They are well organized and are going forward under the leadership of capable and interested leaders in all of the departments. The Church Schools are growing each week, the teachers and officers are capable and are interested in their work. The School at Mt. Olivet has broken its former record attendance two or three times this year.

The Epworth League meetings in all three churches are well attended, and the programs are of a high type. We have a large number of young people on the Concord Circuit and they are interested in the work of the church and are helping to carry on.

Joe B. Bost has been received into the church this quarter on profession of faith. Worth Beaver and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Boger have been received by letter. There are others to be received before the end of the conference year.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smith have been removed by letter this quarter.

The Woman's Missionary Societies are well organized and are doing splendid work. There is a fine missionary spirit and interest throughout the charge. The church schools at Mt. Olivet and Rocky Ridge observe missionary Sunday and the offering is sent in for the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise.

The new parsonage at Mt. Olivet is completed and we have been living in it for the past ten days. The one for Mt. Carmel and Rocky Ridge will be started, I think, the first of the week and will be completed by conference.

The work is in fine shape. Lots of work has been done, and there is still much work to do in the next month.

We came to the Concord Circuit four years ago and found the work not in the best shape possible, but we found in each church and community an excellent group of people who were interested in the work of the Kingdom and were willing to work for its advancement.

We have found throughout the four years that the people of the charge were ready to cooperate in any forward movement. We have found more loyal, willing workers on the Concord Circuit than any charge it has been our privilege to serve. The members of the churches have been our friends and have stood by us all the way.

The four years we have spent here have been filled with experiences of joy and pleasure and we shall not soon forget them. Of course, there have been other things we have had to face, but the happy experiences have so completely outnumbered the others that they were soon forgotten. I have been asked which congregation and which people I loved best. That is an unfair question and it is a question I cannot answer. I love all the people on the charge.

Some preachers are going to be blessed with two good charges next year that are to be made from the Concord Circuit. Both of the charges will have wonderful possibilities, and they each will demand the best of their pastors and give their best to their pastors.

We want to thank each member of each Church for each act of kindness shown us during the past four years.

Respectfully submitted, by J. N. Randall, Pastor
